

Name: _____

Date: _____

Organizing and Understanding Data - Look at each set of data, and then answer each question.

Pilgrims and Indians had a feast together to celebrate Thanksgiving. The following diagram shows how many Pilgrims and Indians came to the feast.

1. How many Pilgrims were at the feast? _____
2. How many Indians were at the feast? _____
3. How many Pilgrims and Indians were at the feast? _____

The following foods were served at the feast.

4. Which food was served the most? _____
5. How many pies were served at the feast? _____
6. Which food was served the least? _____
7. How many more pies were served than turkeys? _____
8. How many ears of corn and turkeys were served? _____
9. How many more ears of corn were served than pies? _____
10. How much food was served at the feast all together? _____

Answer Key

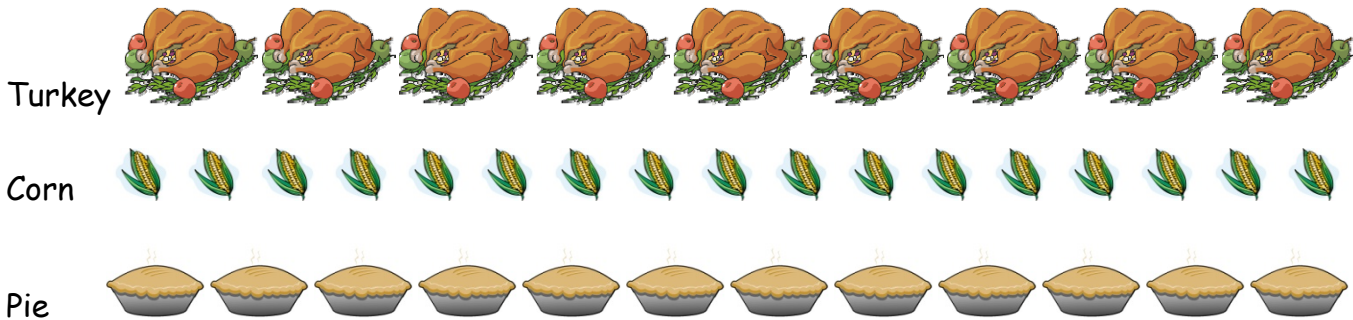

Organizing and Understanding Data - Look at each set of data, and then answer each question.

Pilgrims and Indians had a feast together to celebrate Thanksgiving. The following diagram shows how many Pilgrims and Indians came to the feast.

1. How many Pilgrims were at the feast? 14
2. How many Indians were at the feast? 17
3. How many Pilgrims and Indians were at the feast? 31

The following foods were served at the feast.

4. Which food was served the most? corn
5. How many pies were served at the feast? 12
6. Which food was served the least? turkey
7. How many more pies were served than turkeys? 3
8. How many ears of corn and turkeys were served? 26
9. How many more ears of corn were served than pies? 5
10. How much food was served at the feast all together? 38